

RAPID-FIRE PRESENTATIONS SESSION: How does it work?

Itahisa Déniz González

Project Specialist, IOC-UNESCO

i.deniz-gonzalez@unesco.org

First slide:
Indicate only the title of your presentation, your name, position and e-mail.
You may wish to add the logo of your university/organization, or any information about the project you are working for (if any)

United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

Intergovernmental Oceanographic Commission

Project Enhancing oceanography capacities in the CCLME Western Africa countries Phase III

Introduce purpose/hypothesis & materials and methods

- Instead of a classic poster, you will present “your poster” in plenary
- 3 slides maximum (4 including the “Title” one)
- 5 minutes (sharp) to present your work
- 3 minutes (sharp) for questions and discussion

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION OF PRESENTATIONS:

Friday 6 March 2020

to: i.deniz-gonzalez@unesco.org

Present your Results

- Focus on the most important/significant result (or give us an idea of what you have obtained for the time being)

