

Significant Events in the Indian Ocean

- During the reporting period, 54 earthquakes ($M \geq 6.5$) were monitored within the ESZ (Indian Ocean, Pacific Ocean, and South Atlantic Ocean), and bulletins were issued to IO member states as per the SOP defined in the Service Definition Document.
- No significant tsunami events occurred in the Indian Ocean region during the reporting period. There are three EQs of mag ≥ 6.5 occurred within the Indian Ocean, and all were assessed by the TSPs as “No Tsunami Threat.”

Event Details	Remarks
06 Apr 2025; 6.5MW Southeast Indian Ridge	TSPs issued No Tsunami Threat Bulletin.
28 Jul 2025; 6.6MW Nicobar Islands, India Region	TSPs issued No Tsunami Threat Bulletin.
27 Nov 2025; 6.6MW Off West Coast of Northern Sumatra	TSPs issued No Tsunami Threat Bulletin.